

MEDIA ALERT

Wednesday, 10 October 2018 – 7.30am

NURSES, DOCTORS AND AMBOS JOIN FORCES IN CALL FOR URGENT CIRCUIT-BREAKER

Heads of the professional organisations representing South Australia's nurses, doctors and ambulance officers will today join forces onsite at The Queen Elizabeth Hospital to call on the State Government to break the cycle of overcrowding and ramping at major metropolitan hospitals.

Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (SA Branch) CEO/Secretary Adj Associate Professor Elizabeth Dabars AM, Ambulance Employees Association Secretary Phil Palmer and SA Salaried Medical Officers Association Senior Industrial Officer Bernadette Mulholland will be addressing media onsite to deliver a strong and united message on the issue.

INTERVIEW AND VISION OPPORTUNITY:

Who: ANMF (SA Branch) CEO/Secretary Elizabeth Dabars
AEA Secretary Phil Palmer
SASMOA Senior Industrial Officer Bernadette Mulholland

Where: The Queen Elizabeth Hospital
(on the footpath beyond carpark opposite emergency department entrance)

When: 1pm today

Media contacts: AEA – Phil Palmer – 0419 815 830
ANMF (SA Branch) - Elizabeth Dabars - 0402 795 686
SASMOA – Bernadette Mulholland – 0403 354 018